

Environmental Consulting Business (Established w/ Strong Cash Flow)

This well established environmental consulting business provides consulting, inspection and testing services on environmental issues to industry, government and the private sector. They provide environmental assessments and audits; wetlands and shoreline services; indoor environmental consulting; laboratory analysis; environmental regulatory and project management and industrial hygiene services. The business has several longstanding and highly qualified employees who are professionals in diverse disciplines. The majority of the work is from a sizable list of repeat clients and the business has a fair number of service contracts in place. With the diverse and growing Hampton Roads economy, there are many avenues for a new owner to grow this turnkey environmental assessments and compliance business.
